100 Dollars Reward.

I WILL give the above reward to any person who will return to my possession, negro LAWRENCE, who assumes the surname of FENWICK. This fellow left my farm, on the Wicomico river, in Charles county, Md. on the 6th July, in consequence of his own outrageous conduct towards my overseer. He is a negro of a fine erect figure, good features, a smooth black skin, rather above the middle stature, of a youthful appearance for one of thirty years of age, and of great plausibility and natural smartness. His ears grow remarkably close to his head, and on the inside of his lower lip he has a white mark or spot. I purchased him 4 years ago of the estate of Mrs. P. H. Courts, of this county. I am led (by circumstances which have come to my knowledge since he absconded,) to believe that he will endeavor to make his way to King George county, Va. ; should he not take this route, he will probably be met with in the District of Columbia, or in the upper counties of this state, on his way to Pennsylvania. I apprehend he will change his name, and if committed to jail, refuse to state to whom he belongs, as the misconduct which preceded his departure, & his absconding, have all appeared since to have been premeditated. He took all his clothes with him, of which he had a large number ; among them—a new bear-skin over-coat, a long close-bodied blue coat, a pair of striped jean pantaloons, one or more white waistcoats, besides many articles of coarse cloathing ; these, however, he will probably exchange, or sell them for cash to defray his travelling expenses.

I will give the above reward to any person who will bring him home to me, or FIFTY DOLLARS if confined in jail, and notice given me, so that I recover him.—Should he be taken out of the state, I will also pay all reasonable costs and charges which may attend the bringing him home.

Notice,

To Wheelwrights, Blacksmiths, Tanners, Harness-Makers, Saddlers, Hatters, &c.

BELIEVING as I do, that PROVIDENCE, at Fairfax Court-House, would be a suitable situation for mechanics of the above description, I offer to such, lots in that village for sale, on ground rent for ever—will build and furnish suitable houses and rent to them, or furnish brick to them to build with ; and invite any who feel disposed to settle there, for the purpose of carrying on their respective trades to advantage, to come and view the situation. It is a very public place, the centre of the county, where the superior and county courts are held. The Little River Turnpike Road passes through this little town from Alexandria westward, and where all the public meetings for the county, &c. are held ; and where trades of the aforesaid description being carried on, would meet with great encouragement, and be a public convenience to the country around. No situation can be more healthy—good water, and fire wood cheap. Mechanics of the above description must generally depend on the country people, farmers, &c. to be their customers. Here they would be in a convenient situation for all the purposes. I invite a call, and view for themselves. I would also furnish lots adjacent, from one to five acres each, for cultivation, pasture, &c. on moderate terms ; all of which can be shown, and terms made known, on application to RICH'D. RAN away on the 28th of April, from the farm of the subscriber, in Dogue Neck, Fairfax Co. Virginia, negro HARRY, aged about twenty three years, about five feet ten inches high, very black, well built, has a considerable impediment in his speech, when spoken to evinces much confusion, and replies almost unintelligibly : had on when he left home, a much worn suit of domestic cloth. I have every reason to believe that he is endeavoring to pass for a free man, and as such went off in some of the bay craft during the late fishing season. All masters of vessels are forewarned from harboring or taking into their employ said negro, under penalty of having the law rigidly enforced against them. ADVICE TO THE POOR FARMERS OF MY OWN COUNTY.

The drought of the present year exceeds any since that of 1803, and is even more universal. In Kentucky, from which our sea ports were beginning to procure corn by the way of New Orleans, many have to drive their cattle ten miles to water; in the western parts of Virginia it is worse. In that great corn country on the Rappahannoc and James River, whose abundant crops filled our granaries, reduced the price of that article, and fed the poor of our cities, farmers are stopping the sales of their last year's crop of corn. Although rains have partially fallen in the last ten days, no gladdening change has taken place; such is the fixed and shriveled state of our corn fields, that nothing can renovate them, neither the bounteous rains from heaven, nor the skill of the farmer. Three years ago, corn, the staff of life in Virginia, was 8 and 10 dollars per barrel; in the present absence of money, 5 dollars is more than 10 dollars was in 1816, as money has not only appreciated in value, but in fact has disappeared almost from the face of the earth, still at that period crops were doubly as abundant as we can now venture to anticipate.

Under this gloomy prospect, happily, the only remedy is simple and in the power of all—

Fallow immediately for Rye.

It is the best substitute for Indian corn; it requires less seed than any other grain; it will produce a more abundant crop than wheat on our poor lands, if sowed at this season, the most proper for a fallow crop; it will resist the Hessian fly; it is subject to no diseases; its straw is very valuable as a winter food for cattle; if sown immediately it will not interfere with sowing our corn fields with wheat; a single good ploughing with a subsequent harrowing, will be a sufficient preparation for lands adapted to this grain; and lastly, it loses less than any other crop from the trespasses of our cattle, which our feeble rotten fences are not calculated to prevent.

A FAIRFAX FARMER.

Washington, August 18.

THE CABINET.

We have frequently seen intimations in the newspapers, that, on such a day a Cabinet Council was held, and conjecture is busy as to the probable subject of their deliberations. One guesses it is one thing; another another; and profound speculations are thus thrown away on an incident, which, a few remarks will serve to shew, is in itself inconsequential.

The term Cabinet is not to be found in our Constitution or Laws. It however has been applied, we believe, from the origin of the government, to the President, and his legal advisers, the secretaries for the departments of state, treasury, war and navy; and, more recently, the attorney-general has been included in the number. The president is authorized, by law, to require the opinions of these officers, in writing, on any question submitted to them, and he may take their opinions in any other manner. Through one or the other of them all communications of an official nature are, or ought to be, addressed to the president, and through them all orders are issued in regard to the branches of the public service confided to their superintendance respectively. It is necessary, therefore, that they should hold frequent communication with him. It is probable, that, during the presence of the president at the seat of government, he sees each of them at least once every day. At times, accident brings them all together; at other times they meet by agreement, for the purpose of a more full interchange of opinions respecting public affairs, generally, or respecting any particular measure which may be suggested.

These meetings of the several great officers of the government are, therefore, matters of course; they take place almost every day, and certainly every week, in the year. They are, therefore, pregnant with no important consequences, and portentious neither of peace or war. All inferences drawn from any reported sitting of the cabinet must be vague and conjectural. It were well if such employment of the imagination were always as harmless as it is useless.

Under circumstances nearly analagous, a similar mistake frequently takes place in regard to the proceedings of the senate of the U. States. On a certain portion of its regular business, (that relating to the confirmation of appointments, &c. and usually termed executive business) that body always sit with closed doors. This occurs almost every day of the session, & no one who understands the cause thinks the circumstance worthy of notice. Yet, before now, a newspaper paragraph, intimating that the senate was yesterday sitting with closed doors, by the help of a little Italic, has thrown the quidnuncs into a fever of impatience to know what was to come of it. [National Intelligencer.

It is noticed, in some of the papers, that the Hornet is about to return to Spain, and some importance is attached to the fact. That the Hornet may carry despatches to Mr. Forsyth, is likely, because she brought despaches from him; but from the moment of her arrival, we have heard that she was to return very soon—so that her intended departure proves nothing but that her destination has not been changed. [Ibid.

An article from Berlin, (Prussia) says—"The government is endeavoring to establish as much as possible, a direct commercial intercourse with the United States of America, for which purpose several Prussian consuls have been appointed for the American seaports."

PIRACY.

We have already given the particulars of the recent robberies below New Orleans. The following letter from the Louisiana Gazette of the 17th, contains something new on the subject: [N. Y. Gaz.

Extract of a letter received in town, from a passenger on board the brig Calypso, dated, Balize, July 11.

We arrived here last night, all well, and expected in course of the day to go to sea. Last evening about half past five o'clock, six miles above the Balize, we were boarded by a boat containing nine men, who having taken possession of the brig, and confined us all below, began to make a general search, and took from us every thing of value they could lay their hands on.—They then wished us a safe voyage and made for the rest of the vessels in sight, all of whom shared the same fate. These fellows have a fine boat, (much like the mail boat), and were completely armed—each man having a pair of pistols, a sword, a dirk, and musket. Two passengers were robbed of 731 dollars in specie. And in short, we were robbed of whatever we had; they took even our boots and hats—and from my desk, both ink-stands, penknife, and twenty dollars in cash. They said it was too hard times, and they must "live," and very composedly ordered me to drink with them, and of my own wine.—Said I was a d——d good fellow and must have been a privateersman myself, else I should not have known how to have treated them so well."

New-Orleans, July 23.

We learn that one of the pirates who lately effected escape after they were captured, having been discovered, notice thereof was given to the mayor, who promptly despatched a party to take him, by whom he has been safely lodged in jail. One of the seamen who were present at, and opposed the rescue, recognized in him the person by whom he was wounded in the arm.

Charleston, August 12.

YELLOW FEVER.

The usual "alarm" produced by the existence of the Yellow Fever in this city, has resolved itself into a proper consistency, and the city is now restored to its usual health, which was a few hours since rolling in pestilence, and exciting all the sympathies of humanity, and the agonies of terror. We congratulate the public on this happy revival, and sincerely hope that we shall have no more cause to sound the tocsin that has already existed. That there has been some cases of malignant fever is undeniable; that they arose from peculiar causes, is equally so. These causes, being developed, are removed; and we have every reason, at present, to believe that the city is free from contagion, & as healthy as any large maritime city in the Union.—We are not disposed to treat this subject with any degree of levity, but we are not willing to see our vessels quarantined in their destined ports, and our city depopulated without a cause. [Courier.

Philadelphia, August 16.

In this city last week, 92 persons were buried, of whom 59 were children, and 33 adults. The weekly bill of mortality is decreasing in numbers; the deaths by fever, and that too of the ordinary kinds, are very few, only five having occurred the past week. We here take leave to say, upon the authority of our board of health, and in contradiction to an assertion in a late Baltimore paper, that the weekly accounts of burials in Philadelphia "may be implicitly relied on as correct," and as furnishing a remarkably accurate criterion of the number of deaths which occur here.

[Franklin Gazette.

Philadelphia, August 17.

See that your locks and bolts are secure; and arm your bed rooms—Robbers!

Very early on Saturday morning, the 15th inst. the house of William Muirhead, tavern-keeper, No 206 South-street, was entered by some villain or villains, who took from a pocket-book, in a desk, the following notes: one Philadelphia Bank Note, 10 dollars; one United States Bank, 5 dollars; one Franklin Bank of Baltimore, 5 dollars; one Delaware Bridge Bank, 3 dollars; one Plattsburg Bank, 2 dollars; and four or five one dollar notes, of Camden, Trenton, and Easton Banks.

The robbers had also the temerity to enter the bed-room where the family slept, and took about 2½ dollars in silver out of Wm. Muirhead's small clothes pocket; and about four dollars from the pocket of a person who lay in an adjoining bed-room, and left it without any one of the family hearing or seeing the audacious wretches.

A stage from Boston was recently upset in Brookfield, in consequence of the driver having turned too short in proceeding to a public house. The stage was full of passengers, seven or eight of whom were much injured—among the number, two ladies by the names of Turner and Cabot—the former had several bones broken, and was otherwise much bruised.

Charleston, (S. C.) August 11.

The house of Mr. William Aiken, at the corner of King and Johnson streets, was yesterday afternoon struck with lightning. The front room in the upper story, and most of the ornaments in it, sustained much injury; and the electric fluid, attracted by a steel clasp in the lap of Mrs. Aiken, consumed part of her clothes, and otherwise considerably injured her.

A strong chalybeate spring has recently been discovered on Main-street, in Trenton, N. J. the water of which is said to be a powerful restorative to the system in cases of indigestion, debility, gravel, and other complaints. Dr. Cox, of Philadelphia, is stated to have analyzed and pronounced it a chalybeate.

Boston, August 13.

An agent appointed by the Governor of New-Hampshire, has lately made a report on some of the projects of improvement in roads and canals, which have been brought forward in state. One of the most important is a canal proposed to be made, to connect the waters of the Winnepessiogee lake with Piscataqua river. An act incorporating a company for the accomplishment of this object was passed in 1811. It was suffered to expire by a neglect of the measures for carrying it into effect; but in 1817 it was revived. Nothing however has yet been done towards carrying on the proposed work. No very particular estimate has been made of the expense, but it is conjectured that it may be completed at the cost of about 300,000 dollars. Winnipessiogee lake is twenty-five miles in length, and if its waters were united by a navigable channel with the ocean, a large tract of country, covered with valuable timber, would be brought within reach of a market.

The Concord (N. H.) Patriot, observes that a stone, weighing eighteen tons, and drawn by seventy oxen, lately passed thro' that town. This stone was wrought by the state convicts, and is designed for the floor of a portico in Boston. It was to be conveyed through the canal to its place of destination.

New-York, August 16.

A long spell of hot weather terminated on Saturday evening. Yesterday the wind was a gale from N. E. and the mercury fell from 90 to 80 degrees—a change that has raised the body politic from a dissolving to a strong and vigorous state. [Gazette.

MURDER!

At a court of Oyer and Terminer, held at the borough of Lebanon, for the county of Lebanon, on Wednesday the 4th instant, came on the trial of Christian Dochterman, of Millerstown, in said county, for the murder of his son John Dochterman, a lad of about nineteen years of age, before the Hon. Samuel D. Franks, and his associates. The jury retired about sun set, on Thursday evenibg, and next morning bro't in a verdict of murder in the second degree. The substance of the evidence on behalf of the Commonwealth, showed an atrocious murder. It appeared in evidence by the confusions of the prisoner, that about the dawn of day on the nineteenth of May last, he took from a pile of stove wood, in the room where John Dochterman was then asleep, a billet of walnut, having a large knob on one of its ends, and with it at the first blow, fractured his skull, and repeated the blows so often that the unfortunate victim of this unprovoked cruelty, expired immediately. The cries of Mrs. Dochterman, and a boy of twelve years old, soon alarmed the inhabitants of the village, and led them to the horrid scene. The mother and boy bitterly lamented the act, which occasioned the death of John; while the father walking in great agitation through the kitchen, related to the inquirers, that he had done a terrible act, that he had knocked out his son's brains while he was asleep, that he killed him the first blow. On being asked the reason, he said he had for about three weeks before thought that he was not his son; and that he had killed that morning an evil spirit, or as he sometimes termed it, a dragon! Both the prisoner and deceased some months before this fatal accident happened, had joined the Methodists; and it appeared that the prisoner's mind had been often deranged, from a belief that his sins were too numerous to be pardoned. He often exclaimed, that offers of salvation were made to him in his youth, but that he had refused and was long since past redemption. In consequence of this impression, he often attempted to knock out his own brains against the wall and the stove, and threatened to drown himself.—Witnesses on behalf of the prisoner testified his derangement until a few hours before the commission of the fatal deed. It will be readily discovered that insanity was the only defence which the counsel for the prisoner could make. Such circumstances, however, appeared to accompany the act, as to create a belief on the minds of the jury, that the prisoner was fully conscious of it; yet by an interposition of their humanity they reduced the offence to murder in the second degree.—We understand that the Court on Saturday last, sentenced the prisoner to six years imprisonment in the Penitentiary.

Boston, August 13.

Brig George, 48 hours from Havana for this port, was capsized July 24, at 8 P. M. in a heavy gale—the lanyards being cut away, her masts went over, ripping up the main deck—she afterwards lost her quarter deck, pumps, boats, &c. and filled with water—the crew lashed themselves to the wreck, where they remained until 3 P. M. next day, when they were all taken off, (except one seaman, an Englishman by birth, and who went by the name of Rider) at great hazard, by schr. Philo, capt. Percival, of this port. While the schooner was beating up to the brig, she had settled 12 inches, and must have sunk shortly after being deserted. She remained on her beam-ends. The George had a cargo of 150 hhds molasses, quantity of sugar, specie, &c. Not an article belonging to the vessel or crew was saved. The man who was left on the wreck, being deranged, it was found impossible to save him, as the brig could not be boarded, owing to the heavy sea running. Several ropes were thrown to him, but he refused to use the means in his power to save himself. All those taken from the wreck except a Spanish sailor, were put on board ship Morning Star, of Providence.

Yesterday, at the Union hotel, of this city, was taken into custody on suspicion, Dr. C———e, of Kingston, having in his possession from 750*l.* to 1000*l.* in 5 dollar bills of the Montreal Bank, of the numbers of those stolen from Mr. Ridout. He has given no account how he came by them. He is in consequence committed. It is supposed that the whole sum will be recovered.

With the doctor was taken into custody an American gentleman who was found in his company. Nothing, however appearing against the latter, he was this morning discharged.

A SUDDEN SCRUPLE.

Two friars, the one a Dominitian, the other a Franciscan, travelling together, came to a river. The Dominician told the other, that as he went barefooted he was bound in charity to carry him over—if he did not, it would be a sin. The Franciscan consented and took him on his shoulders. When they came to the middle of the stream, the Franciscan asked him if he had any cash. He answered, 'yes, two rials.' The Franciscan hearing this, said, 'Father, pardon me; but our order positively forbids our carrying any money.' So saying, he threw him into the river.

EXTRAORDINARY THEFT.

On the first day of March a most extraordinary theft was committed in the conventual church of St. Francis d'Assisse, after the celebration of a solemn funeral service for the late Queen of Spain, Isabella de Braganza. The decorations of this occasion are estimated to have cost two millions of Real Vellon (about 100,000 dollars.)—the concourse of people present was immense.—When the officiating bishop had concluded the service, his pontifical robe & ornaments, according to the established custom of Spain, were laid on a massy plateau of silver, and the whole placed on the table called credential by one of the prelate's pages. Immediately a person advanced and made a most profound reverence towards the altar, took the plateau, the rich ornaments of gold and embroidery, the mitre, ornamented with precious stones, and the black cape which had been expressly made for this occasion, and carried the whole off! Through the church, and for a considerable distance outside, he had to proceed through a double line of soldiers, who permitted him to pass without interruption, thinking him to be employed in carrying the episcopal robes, &c. to the bishop's house. The prelate's servants, not finding in the sacristy either the plateau or the ornaments, also believed that the man was a servitor of the convent, and that he had carried them to the bishop's.—The allusion soon ceased; and nothing can equal people's astonishment at the cool audacious, calculating habits of this sacrilegious thief, who completely escaped with his prize, and has not since been heard of.

Newfoundland, May 27.

On Saturday last, the curiosity of the good people of this town, was gratified by an unexpected visit from one of the Red Indians—a native tribe, so called from the pigment of red earth with which they color their bodies.—The interesting stranger is a young woman, apparently about twenty; and she is only the second of her tribe which has been seen amongst the Anglo-American people to the island, for the last half century. It is a fact worth recording, however difficult it may be found of belief, by our English brethren, that in Newfoundland the most ancient of the British possessions in America, connected with the parent country by stronger ties of dependence than any other colony, indentified with her in population, and almost united by daily intercourse, that there should be at this day, a race of men, less known in Great Britain than any other people upon the surface of the discovered globe. To what cause this extraordinary want of information is to be attributed we shall not stop to inquire, but hasten to the more useful task of calling the attention of the public to the interesting subject which has thus presented itself. It is well known that the Red Indians are an aboriginal race of men, who were found along the coasts of the island, at the time of its discovery by Europeans; but from the ill usage they received on all sides, they have for a long time been compelled to retire into the interior, and to fly from the face of every animal in human form, as their certain and most deadly enemy. In the north of the island, they are frequently visited by predatory parties of Esquimeaux from the Labrador, and murdered wherever they are met; in the south they are literally hunted like wild deer by the Miemacs, from the neighboring provinces, and slain for the skins in which they are clothed;—and we may form a probable estimate of the treatment they have been used to experience from our own people upon the seashores, from the fact that they fly their approach with the utmost precipitation and horror, and the knowledge that until very lately, it was not generally understood in this island to be a punishable offence to shoot an Indian.

In consequence of this habitual persecution and cruelty, which every well informed person in this island knows are not exaggerated in the relation, we could not but believe that the Red Indians were the most ferocious and untractable of the savage tribe—impelled by no motives but those of hunger and hostility. And it is with no less of astonishment than pleasure, that we find, in the young woman which has been brought amongst us, a gentle being, sensibly alive to every mild impression and delicate propriety of her sex.

By last Evening's Mail.

From the New-York Gazette of August 17.

The Hector, Gillender, sailed from Liverpool on the 26th of June, and to Captain G. we are indebted for papers of the 23rd from London, and 25th from Liverpool. The articles below are all that appears to be worthy of notice.

The Liverpool papers announce, very emphatically, the arrival there of the Steam Ship Savannah, Rogers, in 26 days from Savannah. After giving an account of the tonnage, &c. of the Savannah, they add,—"Her destination is said to be St. Petersburg, as a present to the Emperor Alexander.

The London papers to the 23d of June are extremely barren.

The cash payment bill had not been disposed of by Parliament—it was to be read a third time on the 30th of June.

The foreign enlistment bill had passed the House of Commons, 190 to 129—majority 61.

The public stocks in England continued to vibrate, and every hour produced elevations and depressions. On the 23d, at the opening of the Stock Exchange, Consols were 68 7-8, and at the close fell to 68 1-8. Reports were constantly invented, and told with apparent earnestness, to favor the views of speculators.

The French Five per Cents. are 68*f.* 35 c. Bank Stock, 1,512 f. 50 c.

There was no change in the markets—sales of cotton were somewhat steady, but at low prices.

We have seen a letter from Liverpool of the 25th of June, which observes, "The very low sales of Cotton appear to have rendered the market rather more steady—good fair Uplands have been purchased at 11d. and inferior at 10½d.; ordinary Tennessees at 9d.—New-York potashes 39 to 40s. Tar 15s. Turpentine 12. Indian Corn 3s. 3d. Dollars 5s. 1d. per ounce."

Another letter of same date, quotes Upland Cotton at 1s. James River Tobacco 6 to 8d. Staves, White Oak hhd. 15 to 23; pipe, 22 to 27.

Cotton, after the 5th of January next, will be subject to an ad valorem duty of 6 per cent. American rice will be admitted at 15s. and East Indian at 5s. a hundred.—The duty on tobacco will be increased about 10d. per lb. and that on bark will be raised to 2s. per cwt.

A mob disturbed the town of Liverpool on the 21st of June, ascribed to the Irish volunteers for South America. The door of the Bridewell was broken in pursuit of two women who had been taken from the soldiers. Eight of the mob had been secured.

The marriage of the king of Spain with the princess Josephine, youngest daughter of prince Maximilian, of Sweden, seems to be determined.

The Right Hon. Robert Dundas, Lord Chief Baron of the Court of Exchequer of Scotland, died on the 17th of June.

One Hundred Dollars Reward.

ON Monday, the 28th June, eloped from Bell Isle, King George county, Virginia, two negro men, DAVID and JOHN. David is a black fellow, about forty years of age, rather below the middle size, has invariably a smile when spoken to, a good hand in the field, and a tolerable wagoner; his clothing, when he absconded, were an old felt hat, a double milled drab great coat, much worn, lined with red flannel, jacket and pantaloons of domestic cotton and yarn cloth, and a coarse linen shirt. David has a wife belonging to Mr. John Singer, who some years since moved from Culpeper county to Harrison county, Va. and for the last two years has been in habits of intimacy with a negro woman by the name of Rosel who was sold last fall, by Mrs. Berryman, of King George, to Mr George Mason, of Gunston, Fairfax co. Va. it is probable he will attempt to get to one of these neighborhoods. Jack is a lively black fellow, about thirty years of age, of the middle size, a little bow legged, rather an awkward hand in the field, having been bred a house servant, at which he excells; rather a surly disposition, and by profession a Baptist. He has a father belonging to Mr. John B. S. Fitzhugh, near Falmouth, Stafford co. Va. and a wife and family belonging to Mr. Thos. Fitzhugh, of Brenton, Prince William co. it is highly probable he is lurking in one of these neighborhoods; had on when he absconded, an old hat, a suit of domestic cloth cotton and yarn, and a brown linen shirt, and carried with him a suit of white domestic jeans. It is probable he and David will change their names and dress. FIFTY DOLLARS will be given for apprehending and securing in jail said negroes, or half for either, if taken in the state of Virginia, or District of Columbia; or the above reward, if taken out of the state; & all reasonable charges, if brought home to the subscriber's residence. Masters of vessels, and others, are forewarned from harboring or carrying off said negroes.

PUBLIC NOTICE,

IS hereby given, that the annual quotas required of country members become due on the 4th instant—those required from the town members have been due for some time.—It is impossible in the collection of either to give such indulgence as heretofore. The low state of the country, funds demands punctuality on the part of the members, and an equal necessity (though owing to a different cause) exists for punctuality in the town's delinquents.—After the 15th of August, all delinquents will be proceeded against at the September courts; this latter course, however unpleasant, is one absolutely due to the punctual members, upon whom should not be thrown the sole support of the institution, whilst the delinquents are entitled to equal advantages.

The members residing in Alexandria & Fairfax, are informed their accounts are lodged in the Farmers' Bank of Alexandria, where payments may be made.

JOHN HOPKINS

Hill and Dale, April 20.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensils and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

S. Drew, Merchant Tailor,

Removed from Fairfax-street to the corner of King and Columbus streets, and his prices falling

RESPECTFULLY acquaints his customers and the citizens in general that he has removed as above, where he will study to give satisfaction. He has by him a small but well assorted stock of goods, which will be found on inspection to be of the best quality, the whole of which he wishes to sell low for cash, and as further inducements to purchasers he offers to cut out any goods, bought of him to any size or pattern gratis.

S. Drew aware, of the advantage a ready money business has over one where long credit is given, thinks that a distinction ought to be made in the prices in each case: and as the price of provisions are low at present, he is glad to be able to announce to those customers who will feel disposed to pay him ready money for his work, that he will reduce the price of making to them according to the present journeymen's wages; and to prevent any supposed imposition on the one hand or disatisfaction on the other he is willing to be governed by the printed regulations of prices by which the journeymen are paid in Alexandria.

N. B. Bread, flour, beef, groceries, liquors or any thing valuable taken in exchange for clothes.

S. Drew has this day opened a tavern in the same house, where he has laid in a a supply of Philadelphia and the district porter and ale, together with liquors of the best quality, and he feels confident that he shall be able to give satisfaction to all who will please to favor him with a call.—He is fitting up his house for the accommodation of boarders, travellers, &c. and from its central situation, good beds and stabling, together with other requisites, he presumes that it will be found a convenient establishment. may 25

PROSPECTUS

Of a new periodical work to be published in the city of Washington, entitled the Washington Theological REPERTORY.

EDITORS. { Rev. Wm Hawley, Washington,
Rev. Wm. H. Wilmer, Alexandria,
Rev. Oliver Norris, Alexandria,
Rev. Reuel Keith, Georgetown.

Assisted by several other literary gentlemen of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

IF any apology were necessary for this undertaking, it may be found in the fact, that there is no publication on a similar plan, in all that section of our country lying south of New-York, and but one in the whole of the United States. It has been matter of equal surprize and regret, that the Episcopal Church should be so far behind other Christian denominations, in similar efforts to disseminate the principles of religion and piety. At a period like the present, when the Lord is preparing his way on earth, by the most remarkable efforts of human agency, and the most wonderful operations of his providence and grace—when we perceive in every part of Christendom, a praise-worthy emulation to share in the glorious work of filling the earth with the knowledge of the only true God, and his Son Jesus Christ; it would seem criminal for any to withhold their exertions, however feeble, in the great enterprize of human happiness and salvation. The editors have, therefore, felt it their duty to make this humble effort to supply this acknowledged deficiency on the part of the church in this section of the country, and to bear their share in the common exertions of Christians to promote the Redeemer's Kingdom. And having obtained the services of a gentleman, in whose talents and principles they have confidence, whose time will be wholly devoted to the superintendence of the work, they feel encouraged to solicit the patronage of the public.

The publecation will be conducted under the immediate inspection and control of the above named editors, who will form a committee to review every article intended for publication. The principles upon which it will be conducted are those of the bible, as illustrated in the articles, Liturgy and Homilies of the Protestant Episcopal Church. As members of this church the editors will feel bound to support the Apostolical character of her institutions, the pious tendency of her rites and ceremonies, and the evangelical nature of her doctrines. But in these, and all other discussions, they hope never to loose sight of that great law of charity which teaches us to "preserve the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace."

Acting upon those catholic principles, so long and so successively pursued by "The Christian Observer," their chief object will be to inculcate sound theological knowledge, and to delineate and recommend pure and vital religion. They trust therefore, that while the members of every Christian denomination may find something edifying and instructive, none will discover any just cause for offence in the pages of this work. General subjects of biblical criticism, practical illustrations of scriptural truth, the biography of illustrious persons, evidences of the truth of revelation, essays on the history and polity of the church, reviews of interesting publications, religious, literary and philosophical intelligence—in short, whatever is connected with the promotion of religion, humanity and literature, will find a place in this repository.

The testimony of experience supersedes the necessity of dwelling on the advantages of a periodical publication on the plan proposed. Its obvious tendency will be to render the various departments of religious knowledge more easy and accessible, and give a more ready currency and wider circulation, to those great truths which involve the present welfare and future destiny of man.

It will tend powerfully to stimulate the exertions of the editors, and console them under the difficulties attendant on the prosecution of this work, amidst many other avocations, should it prove the means under the blessing of God, of enriching any of its readers with the saving knowledge of Christ, and prepare them for a participation in the felicity and glory of his heavenly kingdom. With this hope they commit it into his hands, and confidently solicit their brethren of the clergy and laity to assist them in carrying into effect the objects of the undertaking.

TERMS OF THE WORK.

A volume of the Repertory shall consist of twelve numbers, of which one shall be published on the first day of every month, containing thirty-two large octavo pages, stitched in blue and attended with a table of contents.

The paper used in the work shall be good, and the typography executed with the greatest care.

The price of a volume is two dollars, payable in advance; to such as omit the advance, two dollars and fifty cents.

It is designed to enlarge the size of the work, without increasing the price, as soon as one thousand subscribers shall be obtained.

Communications and remittances may be directed to any of the editors, post paid.

Any person becoming responsible for five subscribers, shall receive a sixth copy gratis.

The first number may be expected in the month of July. June 26
